WILLIAM A. CAMPBELL AWARD

Carl L. Tilghman, Tax Administrator

New Bern, NC, April 28, 2016 – North Carolina Tax Collector’s Association (NCTCA) awarded Carl L. Tilghman the prestigious William A. Campbell Award

The William A. Campbell award is only given at the discretion of the presiding President of the Tax Collectors’ Association. The award may be given to any member of the association based on their exemplary efforts and dedication to the area of tax collections. The award was established in 1997 in honor of William A. Campbell of the Institute of Government for his years of dedicated service to the North Carolina Tax Collectors Association by meeting educational needs and providing guidance through the maze of taxation and bankruptcy law. This award honors those recipients who have given of their time and efforts for the overall betterment of the Tax Collectors of the State of North Carolina.

He was selected by a group of his peers. His commitment to the betterment of tax collectors brought the lockbox service back to our office while looking to improve our collection procedures.

Our office is committed to providing our county with the best customer service by utilizing certified appraisers, collectors and data software applications to provide fair and equitable treatment across the county.

Under Carl L. Tilghman’s leadership, the Carteret County Tax office is the only tax office in North Carolina to receive the IAAO Certificate of Excellence in Assessment Administration.
